Matthew 24. 13-25

IN illo tempore: Dixit Jesus discípulis suis: Cum vidéritis abominationem desolatióne quæ dicta est a Danièle prophéta, stantem in loco sancto: qui legit, intellégit: tunc qui in Iudéa sunt, fúgiant ad montes: et qui in tecto, non descéndat tollere áliquid de domo sua: et qui in agro, non revertátur tollere túnicam suam. Væ autem prægnántibus et nutriéntibus in illis diébus. Oráte autem ut non fiat fuga vestra in hiéme vel sábbato. Erit enim tunc tribulatio magna, qualis non fuit ab initio mundi usque modo, neque fiet. Et nisi breviáti fuissent dies illi, non fieret salva omnis caro: sed propter eléctos breviabúntur dies illi. Tunc si quis vobis díixerit: Ecce hic est Christus, aut illuc: nolite crédere. Surgent enim pseudochrísti et pseudoprophétae: et dabunt signa magna, et prodígia, ita ut in errorem inducántur (si fieri potest) étiam electi. Ecce prædixi vobis. Si ergo díixerint vobis: Ecce in desérto est, nolite exire: ecce in penetrálibus,

GOSPEL

At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: When you shall see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place; (he that readeth, let him understand;) then they that are in Judea, let them flee to the mountains; and he that is on the house-top, let him not come down to take anything out of his house; and he that is in the field, let him not go back to take his coat. And woe to them that are with child, and that give suck, in those days. But pray that your flight be not in the winter, or on the sabbath: for there shall be then great tribulation, such as hath not been found from the beginning of the world until now neither shall be: and unless those days had been shortened, no flesh should be saved; but for the sake of the elect, those days shall be shortened. Then if any man shall say to you: Lo, here is Christ, or there; do not believe him; for there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders, insomuch as to deceive (if possible) even the elect. Behold nolite crédere. Sicut enim fulgor exit ab Oriénte et paret usque in Occidéntem: ita erit et advéntus Fílli hóminis. Ubi cùmque fúerit corpus, illuc congregabúntur et áquila. Statim autem post tribulatióne diérum illórum sol obscurábitur, et luna non dabit lumen suum, et stellæ cadent de célo, et virtútes célorum commovebúntur: et tunc parébit signum Fílli hóminis in célo: et tunc plangent omnes tribus terra: et vidébunt Fílium hóminis veniéntem in núbibus céli cum virtúte multa et majestáte. Et mittet Angelos suos cum tuba et voce magna: et congregabúnt electós ejus a quátuor ventis, a summis célorum usque ad térmínos eórum. Ab árbore autem fici díscole parábolam: cum jam ramus ejus tener fúerit et fólia nata, scítis quia prope est aestas: ita et vos cum vidéritis hæc ómnia, scítote quia prope est in jánuis. Amen dico vobis, quia non præteribit génératió hæc, donec ómnia hæc fiant. Cælum et terra transíbunt, verba autem mea non præteribunt.

I have told it to you beforehand: if therefore they shall say to you: Behold He is in the desert, go ye not out; behold He is in the closets, believe it not. For as lightning cometh out of the east, and appeareth even into the west, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. Wheresoever the body shall be, there shall the eagles also be gathered together. And immediately after the tribulation of those days, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of heaven shall be moved; and then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven, and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn; and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with much power and majesty; and He shall send His angels with a trumpet and a great voice, and they shall gather together His elect from the four winds, from the farthest parts of the heavens to the utmost bounds of them. And from the fig tree learn a parable: when the branch thereof is now tender, and the leaves come forth, you know that summer is nigh. So you also, when you shall see all these things, know ye that it is nigh even at the doors. Amen I say to you that this generation shall not pass till all these things be done. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but My words shall not pass away.
